Legendary and pioneering winemaker, Brian Croser continues to produce magnificent Chardonnay from the 'distinguished' Tiers Vineyard in the Piccadilly Valley sub-district of the Adelaide Hills. From the ubiquitous warmest site in the coolest zone, the result is magnificent ripeness of flavour with excellent acid retention. With flavours of fresh yet ripe nectarine, cashews and oak spice, this wine will deliver.

2016 Penfolds 'Reserve Bin A' - Adelaide Hills, SA	350
A tale of two very different vintages. Both producing brilliant wines from two very different sets of circumstances. 2016 was warm and dry and crops were good with quality overall very high in 2016. The wines are rich and dense. 2017 also produced wines, but from a long and cool vintage. The wines have greater length from acidity and finer, longer flavour profiles. Either way, at 5-6 years of age, compare the differences. These wines are in their peak drinking windows for maximum fruit, richness and weighty complexity.

2017 Joshua Cooper 'Doug's Vineyard Sans Soufre' - Macedon Ranges, Vic ⑤ (minimal intervention) .	360

'New kid on the block' or already a minted and seasoned pro? Of the Cobaw Ridge family, Josh's wines a great light on single vineyard sites and coupled with his 'natural' or minimal intervention techniques the wines display fruit purity, delicacy and refreshing acidity. The 2017 in particular is a great example of how a natural wine ages with increased complexity of flavour and density.

Established by Phillip Jones in 1979 and named after pioneers George Bass and Arthur Phillip, the eponymous name is now well established in Australian vinous folklore. Of great pioneering spirit, the wines have earned their place now alongside the true international greats. Speaking of time and place, these magical wines are made simply, of course where behind the apparent simplicity lies complexity and utmost attention to detail. The Premium offerings offer power and complexity that reward cellaring and offer incredible layers of flavour and nuance. These two offerings, separated by 7-years show the power of brilliant vintages of contrasting style. The power and warmth of the growing season 2010 compared to the cooler and racier acidity of 2017. The iconic Reserve of course, belongs alongside Grange as the greatest red wines of this land.

Greatest vintages only need apply with Penfolds and also generally a minimum of 20-years in bottle, if not more preferred to show the true depth and character of these wines. The 1998 in both single bottle format and magnum, the undoubted star format for ageing. A stellar vintage of near perfect proportions.

The 1998s wines are as warm and generous as the vintage conditions dictated. The 1986 also, another brilliant vintage and more than a decade older than the 1998, hails from the era when tannin and balance were prized. A brilliant and mature wine, at its secondary and tertiary peak.
