

Cafe Sydney COVID-19 House Policy

Updated Friday 25 January 2022

At Cafe Sydney we are committed to the health, safety and wellbeing of our guests, team, suppliers, and surrounding community. With the ever-evolving Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak, now in the omicron moment, we wish to assure you of our consistent vigilance across our restaurant.

Our full team have been inducted and trained into the COVID House Policy, which will be an on-going process as Australian Government guidelines evolve.

All staff are urged to get tested if they have any symptoms of COVID-19 and immediately self-isolate until a negative result is received. We are monitoring our team's health daily – temperature, attendance, wellness and contact.

Conditions of entry- Guests, staff, and suppliers

In line with health advice of the NSW Government

- Will be denied entry if COVID-19 symptoms are evident.
- Mask wearing is at our staff discretion.
- Guests are not required to wear a mask
- Masks are encouraged for an indoor setting where you cannot maintain a safe distance from others and for customer-facing retail staff to protect vulnerable people.
- QR check-in does not apply.

Restaurant social distancing configuration and hygiene practices

- Cafe Sydney – no density limits apply
- Touchless sanitising dispenser stations are located throughout the restaurant
- Rigorous, sanitation and disinfectant cleaning on all touch points across our entire restaurant – the dining room and bar, kitchen through to deliveries, and back of house.
- Our restaurant is professionally deep cleaned daily.

For the protection of our team, guests, and business anyone not complying with the Cafe Sydney House Policy will be asked to vacate the premises. We appreciate your ongoing support.

We look forward to welcoming you into Cafe Sydney, taking a moment to escape, enjoy the view and replace the uncertainty of the times with the familiarity of a delicious meal.
